By becoming an Affiliate you are indicating your interest in physics and the wider physics community. All you need to qualify is an interest in physics!

If you have a qualification or work in physics you might want to apply for an alternative grade of membership. All guidelines and application forms are available from www.iop.org (How do I become a member?).

How long will my application take?

You will receive a decision on your application within two weeks.

How to apply

Please complete the application form at the end of this document and return it to the membership department or you can apply online at www.iop.org

Remember to include your payment with this form.
