

Schools and Colleges Affiliation Scheme

The Institute of Physics is a leading scientific membership society working to advance physics for the benefit of all. One of our core aims is to secure a flourishing future for physics, and to this end we offer an Affiliation Scheme to support physics in schools and colleges throughout the UK and Ireland.

Sign your school/college up for Affiliation today and get your first year at the discounted price of £40(€48).

Your affiliation will include:

- Classroom Physics newsletter 4 x year and accompanying e-shots, with information about events, resources and training, as well as teaching tips and practical ideas
- Physics World magazine monthly, keeping you in touch with developments in physics as well as providing inspiration for your students
- Online access to Physics Education. A journal published six times year, containing articles about teaching physics, news, teaching tips and reviews of textbooks and software
- Discounts on Institute conferences and events
- Resources including posters and careers material produced by the Institute and other organisations

Please note, this offer is only available to secondary schools and colleges located in the UK and Ireland. The deadline for submitting the discount order form overleaf is 30 April 2019.
