“Lighting is essential to a show – it isn’t just so the audience can see things, it creates mood and atmosphere and helps to tell a story. I have to understand the properties of light and use lots of equipment and technology to create the right effects, and work with everyone at the theatre to make each performance look its best.”

DAN