

IOP website content policy

Content on the public website should keep with the Institute's brand guidelines, and follow good web practice.

There are policies for all users on content and style (PDF, 360 KB). If requests conflict with these policies, there may need to be discussion before the content is added.

If a Branch/Division/Group disagrees with a decision, a query can be raised by e-mailing member services (Branches), the Science Support Officer (Divisions/Groups) or the Communications and External Relations Director.