

Bell Burnell Graduate Scholarship Fund

Part 2 – Supervisor’s Report

As a part of the monitoring and evaluation of the Bell Burnell Graduate Scholarship Fund studentships, the IOP requires the student and their Lead Supervisor to submit a progress report at various intervals during the award. We intend to monitor the experiences, satisfaction and performance of Bell Burnell scholars to ensure they are receiving suitable levels of supervision, training and support required. We will also improve our processes, if necessary. Continuation of the grant payments under the Agreement depends on the submission of a satisfactory report. The student is responsible for submitting their report before the corresponding deadline below (Table 1). This report will be confidential and read only by the Grants Manager and Chair (or designate) of the BBGSF Panel.

Table 1: Reporting dates

These progress reports are meant to keep the IOP informed and students will not be unduly penalised for a slowly progressing project.

Lead Supervisors are encouraged to provide an honest and fair critical evaluation of the student’s progress, highlighting any limitations or delays that arise and could potentially impede completion of the doctoral programme and indicating how these will be resolved.
