10 Code of Conduct

All members of the IOP must, at all times, comply with the Code of Conduct, which is available on the IOP's website.

11 Disciplinary Procedures

11.1 Principles

- 11.1.1 These disciplinary procedures shall, at all times, be subject to the Disciplinary Process as set out in the Bylaws and, in the event of any conflict, the Bylaws shall prevail.
- 11.1.2 In this Regulation 11, a 'Governance Committee' shall be a board, committee or ad hoc group established by Council pursuant to the Bylaws to undertake governance functions for Council and which is designated as a 'Governance Committee' by Council.
- 11.1.3 At all stages of the disciplinary procedures, regard shall be had to the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness.
- 11.1.4 The IOP requires all members to adhere to the Code of Conduct as a condition of their membership, thereby providing evidence of their commitment to both professionalism and probity. These procedures set out disciplinary provisions for members and are made in accordance with the Bylaws.
- 11.1.5 The names of members who are disciplined in accordance with these procedures may be published, as determined by Council and in accordance with the Bylaws.
- 11.1.6 Unless otherwise determined by Council, once a complaint has been made against a member, and they have been notified accordingly, the member shall not be entitled to resign from membership until the disciplinary procedures have fully concluded. Any attempted resignation shall be of no effect.
- 11.1.7 Complaints may be made against a member by the IOP, another member, or a third party. The Head of Membership, as secretary to the Disciplinary Committee, will accept specific, written complaints concerning the issue of professional misconduct of an IOP member. Notification need not come from members of the IOP, but complainants shall be required to supply their full name and contact information (address, telephone number and email address) when making a report of alleged misconduct.
- 11.1.8 In most cases, it is expected that evidence will be gathered independently and that there should not be a need to identify the initial complainant. However, if the complainant is the main source of evidence of the alleged misconduct, their details may be identified to the respondent and the complainant will be made aware of this where relevant, with reasonable notice prior to any disclosure.
- 11.1.9 The IOP will also consider the outcomes of investigations, on the same or a related matter, by other organisations, which have found a member of the IOP liable for misconduct, and which are subsequently brought to the attention of the IOP. The IOP will only consider such matters when they have been completed and any judgment becomes final or on termination of the proceedings (if the proceedings are terminated before judgment is given). It is the responsibility of every member to notify the IOP if any judgement has been made against them that may bring in to question their ability to remain as a member. The provisions of this paragraph are in addition to the obligations of members under the Code of Conduct to self-report breaches.
- 11.1.10 Anonymous communications with regard to these disciplinary procedures will not be accepted.

- 11.1.11 The details of disciplinary actions and all information gathered or used in connection with the action will be kept confidential to the Disciplinary Committee and appropriate staff members and, at the relevant time, Council and any appeal panel, until the outcome of such action, including any period for appeal.
- 11.1.12 Examples of misconduct which may be subject to disciplinary proceedings include:
- (a) being convicted of any criminal offence;
 - (b) deliberately publishing false data;
 - (c) working so as to purposely harm the environment;
 - (d) incorrectly putting themselves as an author of any written document where authorship is not valid;
 - (e) communicating on behalf of the IOP without permission of the IOP;
 - (f) misuse of any IOP resource;
 - (g) harassment of IOP staff, Council, or board/committee members (including without limitation Disciplinary Committee members);
 - (h) falsifying any professional qualification;
 - (i) bullying or harassment whether occurring at an event or conference, on any social media platform or elsewhere;
 - (j) discrimination on the grounds of any protected characteristic, for example, race, gender, age, sexual orientation, disability or religious belief;
 - (k) any breach of the Code of Conduct not otherwise identified above; and
 - (l) any breach by a trustee of the Trustee Code of Conduct.
- 11.1.13 The following are examples of issues which fall outside of the remit of the Disciplinary Committee and, therefore, shall not normally be subject to disciplinary proceedings:
- (a) Any action resulting directly from the breakdown of an intimate relationship.
 - (b) Workplace bullying or workplace grievances or disputes, which should be dealt with under the relevant workplace's procedures. However, if the member's workplace actions also constitute a breach of the Code of Conduct, this may be considered by the Disciplinary Committee. It would normally be appropriate for the relevant workplace's procedures to conclude before any complaint is made to the Disciplinary Committee.
 - (c) Any issue concerning the recovery of debt, unless conduct in relation to such issue also constitutes a breach of the Code of Conduct.
 - (d) Criminal or illegal activity – the complainant would be advised to notify the police or relevant authorities for investigation. A complaint may be made about a member who has been found guilty of, or pleaded guilty to, criminal or illegal activity.

11.2 Disciplinary Committee

- 11.2.1 The Disciplinary Committee will only meet as and when complaints are received and shall be convened in accordance with these Regulations.
- 11.2.2 Complaints about members of IOP staff who are also IOP members will ordinarily be dealt with under the IOP's employment contracts and policies.
- 11.2.3 Meetings of the Disciplinary Committee will be reported to Council, which will decide upon the outcomes of any disciplinary procedure against a member.
- 11.2.4 All communications between the Disciplinary Committee and complainants and the subjects of any complaint will be in writing (which may include email but not any other form of electronic communication including, without limitation, social media or text).
- 11.2.5 Decisions of the Disciplinary Committee shall be made by a simple majority of votes. In the case of a tied vote, the Chair shall have a second or casting vote. All associated records shall be retained for five years from the date the disciplinary proceedings fully conclude after which they will be destroyed. However, the outcome of the disciplinary process will be held against the member's database record for a period determined by the Disciplinary Committee, such period to be consistent with the IOP's then prevailing data retention periods and applicable data protection laws.
- 11.2.6 For the purposes of this Regulation 11:
- (a) Written warnings will be dispatched from the Disciplinary Committee itself following approval by Council. Each warning will remain active on the member's database record for a period of two years (or such other period as may be reasonably determined by Council, such period to be consistent with the IOP's then prevailing data retention periods and applicable data protection laws). Members with an active warning on their record will not be permitted to serve on Council or to serve on the Disciplinary Committee or boards/committees reporting (directly or indirectly) to Council. Such members will also not be permitted to serve on Nation, Branch or Group Committees. Members who receive a further written warning, whilst the first is still active on file, will automatically be suspended from membership for a period of two years from the date of the second warning.
 - (b) Suspension of membership will occur for a minimum of one and a maximum of two years (or such other period as may be reasonably determined by Council). During suspension, members will lose their right to use designatory letters and must, where applicable, re-apply for Chartered or Registered status when they are eligible to re-enter membership, and this shall be considered under Regulation 12.1. Members who were in the class of Fellow at the time of their suspension will re-enter membership at the class of Member and will have to re-apply to attain Fellow status. Details of the suspension shall remain active on the member's database record for the period determined by Council, such period to be consistent with the IOP's then prevailing data retention periods and applicable data protection laws.
 - (c) Expulsion from membership is a permanent action. A permanent record of the expulsion shall be held against the member's database record, to ensure that they are not readmitted.
 - (d) Sanctions for a breach by a trustee of the Trustee Code of Conduct may, in addition to the sanctions set out elsewhere in these Regulations, also include required additional trustee training or recommendation for removal as a trustee (where permitted under the Bylaws).

- (e) All retention periods for disciplinary records shall be subject to data protection law then prevailing.
- 11.2.7 The Disciplinary Committee shall be chaired by the Vice-President for Membership or their nominee (who may, but is not required to, be a trustee). The Disciplinary Committee shall comprise no more than seven members who shall, having due regard to diversity and the skills and experience required, be selected by the Vice-President for Membership. Such members shall be sought initially from the current membership of the Governance Committees but, failing that, may be selected from any other IOP committee. Other than the Vice-President for Membership or their nominee, no trustee shall be a member of the Disciplinary Committee. A quorum for all meetings of the Disciplinary Committee shall be three.
- 11.2.8 Where the complaint relates to a member who holds a professional registration awarded by the IOP, then at least one member of the Disciplinary Committee must hold a registration of equivalent or higher status.
- 11.2.9 The secretary to the Disciplinary Committee (‘the Secretary’) shall be the Head of Membership or their nominee. On receipt of a copy of the complaint, members of the Disciplinary Committee shall be required to disclose any potential conflict of interest or any connection to the complainant and/or the respondent.
- 11.2.10 The Disciplinary Committee shall examine those cases where a member of the IOP or other person or organisation has submitted a complaint against a member or has alleged that such member has acted in contravention of the Code of Conduct. Subject to these Regulations, the Disciplinary Committee shall prepare and maintain such procedures as are necessary for the investigation of any complaint against a member.
- 11.2.11 The Disciplinary Committee may recommend to Council any one or more of the following actions as an outcome of the relevant stage of the disciplinary procedure and Council may then determine such action(s) as it deems appropriate:
- (a) To expel or suspend any member from membership.
 - (b) To remove any member from the IOP’s professional registers.
 - (c) To reprimand any member or to call for a written undertaking from any member as to their future conduct.
 - (d) To issue a written warning.
 - (e) To advise the Engineering Council and/or the Science Council of its decisions and to retain the right to advise other professional bodies of which that member is also a member and any relevant regulator relevant to that member (in each case, this would not be done until the final outcome of the IOP’s proceedings, including any appeal, is known). The IOP may suspend its own disciplinary case to await the outcome of related cases being considered by other professional bodies and societies and will notify the respondent and complainant of such suspension.
 - (f) To advise IOP Group companies (including IOP Publishing Limited).

- (g) To dismiss a complaint and, in such cases, may (but shall not be obliged to) refund any reasonable direct costs incurred by the member in defending themselves.
 - (h) To direct that a statement recording the exercise of any of the above shall be entered on the membership record of the member and (subject to the other provisions of this paragraph 11 in respect of data retention periods) to direct how long such statement shall be active on the record (this would not be done until the final outcome of the proceedings, including any appeal, is known). This is necessary to ensure that the determination of Council is carried into effect.
- 11.2.12 Subject to Regulation 11.3.3, an investigation to gather any evidence in support of a complaint under this Regulation 11 will be made, followed by a hearing where appropriate (and subject to Regulation 11.4.4), prior to making any decision in accordance with these Regulations.
- 11.2.13 In respect of the disciplinary procedure:
- (a) All persons (whether complainant, respondent, witness or otherwise) at any stage of the procedure must not contact the members of the Disciplinary Committee, Council, any appeal panel, or any other person involved in the procedure, except at agreed times and through agreed methods, until the process has concluded.
 - (b) All such persons involved in the procedure and all Disciplinary Committee members must not disclose to any other person details of the complaint or disciplinary procedure, except for: (i) in the case of the respondent, those persons directly advising them on the case or who would otherwise be accompanying them as their representative to a hearing; and (ii) Disciplinary Committee members properly carrying out their role as such;
 - (c) Sanctions for breach of this Regulation 11.2.13 may include, without limitation, written warning and potentially expulsion from membership.

11.3 Investigations of Complaints

- 11.3.1 Where the source of a potential complaint arises from circumstances discovered by staff of the IOP, the Secretary shall refer the matter to the Chair of the Disciplinary Committee ('the Chair') for consideration. If the Chair, in consultation with the Secretary, considers that the matter justifies consideration, the Secretary shall act as the complainant and shall prepare a written statement of no more than 1,000 words.
- 11.3.2 When the Secretary receives a complaint against a member from a person in circumstances not mentioned in Regulation 11.3.1, they shall call for a written statement from the complainant of no more than 1,000 words and shall pass this to the Chair.
- 11.3.3 If the Chair, in consultation with the Secretary, decides that the complaint is of a frivolous or trivial nature, the complainant shall be notified of that outcome by the Secretary and the matter shall be closed.
- 11.3.4 Unless it is decided that the complaint is of a frivolous or trivial nature, the Chair will establish a Disciplinary Committee to investigate the issue, and the Secretary will circulate the written statement referred to in Regulations 11.3.1 and 11.3.2, as well as any evidence gathered for the purposes, where appropriate, of a disciplinary hearing. As part of this process, evidence may be requested from the respondent.

11.4 Disciplinary Proceedings

- 11.4.1 Unless the complaint is deemed to be of a frivolous or trivial nature, the Secretary shall:
- (a) Notify the respondent and complainant in writing in accordance with Regulation 11.4.7, as appropriate.
 - (b) Prepare a concise statement of the case and a dossier of evidence.
 - (c) Check whether the facts giving rise to the case are sub judice or subject to investigation by any other competent tribunal or body.
- 11.4.2 If the Disciplinary Committee agrees that the matter is in the public interest, one additional member representative of the public interest and not a member of the IOP may be co-opted to sit on the Disciplinary Committee. This additional member shall have the power to vote, and their duties will end with the conclusion of the disciplinary procedure.
- 11.4.3 The Disciplinary Committee shall decide whether it is reasonable in the circumstances for the identity of the complainant, and/or their written statement, to be revealed to the respondent. If the Committee decides to identify the complainant, then the complainant will be given reasonable notice prior to any disclosure.
- 11.4.4 The Disciplinary Committee will determine, based on the nature of the complaint and the evidence gathered, whether a hearing (physical or virtual) is required. If it determines that no hearing is required, the following Regulations 11.4.5 to 11.4.18 inclusive shall be disapplied and the complainant and respondent shall be notified accordingly.
- 11.4.5 The date and time of the hearing will be determined by the Secretary following consultation with the concerned parties. Hearings may take place physically or virtually as determined by the Secretary and if held physically shall take place at the IOP's London office or at such other venue reasonably determined by the Secretary.
- 11.4.6 If the respondent confirms in writing that they do not wish to contest the proceedings, or if they choose not to appear at the disciplinary hearing, the Disciplinary Committee is authorised to proceed in their absence.
- 11.4.7 The Secretary will notify the concerned parties in writing of the following:
- (a) The date and time of the hearing (which may be no earlier than 30 working days following the issue of the notification).
 - (b) A full statement of the grounds of the complaint and copies of any evidence that will be considered.
 - (c) A requirement to furnish the Secretary not less than 15 working days before the hearing with copies of all documents the parties will rely on (which will then be circulated to the other concerned parties).
 - (d) In the case of the respondent, that they have the right to be accompanied and represented at the hearing by one person chosen by them and that they must notify the Secretary not less than 15 working days before the hearing of whether they intend to appear in person or be represented (to be represented the respondent must also be present), and whether they will be represented by any person (and the name and details of such a person). Subject to Regulation 11.4.10, any representative will not ordinarily be able to speak for the respondent if the respondent is absent.

- (e) That, if the respondent fails to attend at the due time, the hearing may proceed in their absence unless the respondent has given to the Secretary reasonable prior notice with due reason for their non-attendance.
 - (f) That, unless the Chair decides otherwise, the respondent must refrain from taking part in any public facing role or activity on behalf of the IOP pending the outcome of the disciplinary procedure.
- 11.4.8 The Secretary will enclose a copy of these Regulations with any notification.
- 11.4.9 If the respondent fails to attend without due reason, then the Disciplinary Committee should satisfy itself that due notice was given to the respondent and, if it was, may proceed with the hearing.
- 11.4.10 If the respondent is unable to attend due to ill health, as certified by a qualified doctor, and is unable to send a representative in their place, the date of the hearing shall be rearranged by the Secretary. In the event of a representative attending in circumstances where the respondent is ill or incapacitated, then they shall be able to speak on the respondent's behalf.
- 11.4.11 Ill health as certified by a qualified doctor can prevent the hearing from taking place on two occasions. Should the respondent fall ill for a third hearing, and no representative is chosen by them to attend in their place, then the hearing will continue in their absence, and they will be awarded a reasonable opportunity to respond to the hearing's findings in writing before the hearing is formally concluded.
- 11.4.12 A hearing shall be conducted with due regard to the principles of natural justice, and conclusions on the merits of a complaint shall be reached on the balance of probabilities. It shall be held in private unless the Disciplinary Committee decides that it is in the public interest or in the interests of justice that it should be held in public.
- 11.4.13 The Chair shall preside and shall have power to postpone or adjourn the hearing and, following consultation, set a date for its reconvention.
- 11.4.14 No document or witness shall be submitted to the hearing that has not been submitted in accordance with these Regulations, without the consent of the Chair.
- 11.4.15 Any member of the Disciplinary Committee shall have the right to question the respondent (and their representative if they are speaking for the respondent under Regulation 11.4.10) and any witnesses as appropriate.
- 11.4.16 The Disciplinary Committee has the power to call upon expert advice as it feels necessary. The Disciplinary Committee shall not unreasonably refuse permission for the respondent to call such witnesses (at their own expense) as they deem appropriate.
- 11.4.17 The Chair shall have the right to suspend the hearing at any time to consult with the Disciplinary Committee or advisors, or at the reasonable request of the respondent.
- 11.4.18 At the conclusion of the hearing, all except the Disciplinary Committee and the Secretary shall withdraw and allow private deliberation to occur.
- 11.4.19 The Disciplinary Committee will submit its findings and recommendation to Council, for decision by Council. Where the recommendation is to dismiss the complaint, the respondent's name will not appear in the report.

- 11.4.20 The outcome of Council's decision will be communicated to the respondent in writing within 10 working days of being made. The respondent will be notified in that correspondence of their right to appeal any decision and the timeframe for doing so.
- 11.4.21 Subject to Regulation 11.5.3, should the respondent not begin appeal proceedings within 30 days of the result being notified to them, the decision will be final, and the Secretary will enter a report of the proceedings on the respondent's membership record.
- 11.4.22 If the outcome is deemed by Council to be of public interest, the Chair may direct the Secretary to alert relevant external parties. The respondent will not be identified where an appeal is pending. This shall be consistent with the obligations of the IOP and shall be subject to such data protection legislation as may from time-to-time apply to records held by the IOP.

11.5 Right to Appeal

- 11.5.1 The complainant shall have no right to appeal the decision unless new information or evidence is submitted to the Secretary in a written statement of no more than 1,000 words within 15 days of being notified of the decision. The complainant may only raise a new complaint within 12 months from the date of the previous decision if it includes information not previously considered as part of the original complaint.
- 11.5.2 In addition to the appeal procedure listed here, where an expelled member has lost their Engineering Council registration because of the disciplinary procedure, there may be an additional right of appeal to the Engineering Council. An appeal to the Engineering Council shall be conducted in accordance with its disciplinary procedure guidance. Any such appeal is strictly restricted to grounds of procedural irregularity and shall not adjudicate on the substance of the case. There is no right of appeal to the Science Council.
- 11.5.3 The respondent has the right to appeal all or part of the decision. If the respondent wishes to appeal the decision, they must indicate this to the Secretary in writing within 30 days of the decision being notified to them. Such period of 30 days may be extended by the Group Chief Executive Officer of the IOP at their discretion. Within this period, the respondent must submit to the Secretary a document outlining the reasons for their appeal against the decision.
- 11.5.4 The Secretary shall notify the complainant, the Chair of the Disciplinary Committee, and the President of the IOP, of the appeal.
- 11.5.5 Requests for an appeal will only be considered if there is prima facie evidence that (i) the disciplinary proceedings were not conducted in accordance with the then prevailing Regulations in some material respect; or (ii) material new evidence has become available. Disagreement with any decision of the Disciplinary Committee or Council alone cannot constitute grounds for an appeal. Additionally, if the President is of the view that the appeal is of a frivolous or trivial nature, the appeal can be dismissed without the need for an appeal panel to be convened.
- 11.5.6 The President will request the establishment of an appeal panel ('the Panel') consisting of at least three members. Such members shall be sought initially from the current membership of the Governance Committees but, failing that, may be selected from any other IOP committee. No person shall be a member of the Panel if (a) they were a member of the Disciplinary Committee for the relevant matter; (b) they were a member of Council and were involved in the decision on the matter pursuant to Regulation 11.4.19; (c) they were involved in any other way in the disciplinary procedure; or (d) they have otherwise declared or have a conflict of interest or connection to either the complainant or respondent. Any appeal will be heard as soon as is reasonably practicable, normally within 15 working days. The role of the Panel is to consider each case, to assess whether disciplinary proceedings were carried out adequately and fairly, and to assess any material new evidence.

- 11.5.7 The Secretary will submit to the Panel the minutes of the Disciplinary Committee hearing (if applicable), all evidence seen by the Disciplinary Committee, any additional material submitted to Council, plus the appeal document.
- 11.5.8 The Panel will then discuss the appeal, either in person or virtually.
- 11.5.9 The Panel can choose to interview the respondent and/or the complainant to clarify existing points. The respondent shall be notified of when the Panel is meeting to discuss their appeal, their right to be represented and, where the appeal is based on material new evidence, shall be informed of their right to present that evidence to the Panel as the Panel deems appropriate. A record of the appeal and the sanction applied shall be retained for a period consistent with those set out in paragraph 11.2.6.
- 11.5.10 Once the Panel is satisfied that it has all the required information, it can make one of the following decisions:
- (a) The original decision is upheld, and the same penalty applied.
 - (b) The original decision is upheld, and a different penalty applied.
 - (c) The original decision is not upheld, on the grounds that:
 - (i) the case was not dealt with properly in some material respects;
 - (ii) there was some material new evidence that was not considered previously; or
 - (iii) there was some material irregularity, and the penalty is withdrawn or reconsidered.
- 11.5.11 The Secretary will, within 10 working days, communicate in writing the Panel's decision to the complainant and respondent.
- 11.5.12 The President will report the outcome of the appeal at the next meeting of Council.
- 11.5.13 Once these proceedings have been concluded, no further appeal is possible.

12 Applications for reinstatement of Chartered or Registered status

12.1 If a person for whom permission to use a Chartered or Registered designation has been withdrawn:

- 12.1.1 as a result of disciplinary action;
- 12.1.2 as a result of failure to submit a reflective CPD return; or
- 12.1.3 as a result of failure to pay any required membership subscriptions or registration fees, shall subsequently apply for its reinstatement, such application shall, provided there are no active disciplinary issues, and there are no ongoing subscription or fee arrears, be considered and determined by the Professional Standards Committee:

13 Right of members to inspect records

Members shall, upon reasonable written notice to the IOP, have the right to review the signed and audited annual accounts of the IOP and such material as the Group Chief Financial Officer may consider appropriate to release by way of background to such audited accounts. The decision of the Group Chief Financial Officer of the level of background material to release shall be absolute and final.
